10. Distribution, display, and demonstrations of products, technologies, and services, or company printed materials of any kind, are limited to the exhibit area rented by the exhibiting company in the ISPE Europe Biotechnology Conference exhibit hall. 14. ISPE may terminate the Exhibiting Company's Exhibit Space Application and Contract and/or the ISPE Conference (or part of it) when ISPE in their sole discretion believe that (a) the premises in which the meeting is or is to be conducted has become unfit for occupancy, or (b) the holding of the ISPE Conference or ISPE performance under the Contract is substantially or materially prevented or interfered with by a cause or causes not reasonably within ISPE's control. ISPE is not responsible for delays, damage, loss, increased costs, or other unfavorable conditions that arise as a result of such termination. Furthermore, in the event of such termination, ISPE may retain such part of the Exhibiting Company's exhibit fees as shall be required to recompense ISPE for expenses incurred up to the time of such termination or incident to such termination, with no liability for either party to the Contract. The Exhibiting Company waives all claims for damages or recovery of payments made, except for the return of the pro-rated amount paid for the exhibit space, less expenses incurred by ISPE.
15. The above phrase "a cause or causes not reasonably within ISPE's control" includes but is not limited to: fire; casualty; flood; epidemic; earthquake; explosion; accident; blockage; embargo; inclement weather; act or threat of terrorism; riot or civil disturbance; strike, lockout, boycott or other labor disturbance; inability to secure necessary labor; technical or personnel failure; lack of or impaired transportation facilities; inability to obtain, condemnation, requisition or commandeering of necessary supplies or equipment or services; orders or restraints imposed by civil defense, military or other types of governmental authorities; or acts of God; or such circumstances making ISPE's performance impossible or commercially impracticable in its sole discretion.
